WASHINGTON NOTES.

Two Presidents accepted fifty miles of recently constructed Northern Pacific Railroad in Montana, westward from the 62nd to the 67th mile.

The Treasury Department has been informed at the request of Port Townsend, W. T., of nine Chinamen "unemployed" into this country through British Columbia. The fact has been reported to the President who will order their deportation.

SECRETARY TELLER says the indemnity lands of the Northern Pacific road must not be closed to settlement any longer than is necessary to enable the company to make selections of lands in lieu of those lost in the granted lands, and directed the Commissioner of the Land Office to withhold the company that all selections in Wisconsin and Minnesota must be made in three months, then orders withdrawing the indemnity lands will be revoked and the same opened to settlement.

It is said the Civil Service Commission will be asked for an increased appropriation for the support of the reform movement. It appears that the Commission is already hampered for the want of clerks and funds to employ them.

The Treasury Reserve the 7th, amounted to $120,000,000, which was $6,000,000 less than the amount reserved for the redemption of legal tenders. The reserve the day before was $114,000,000. The odd difference was due to the payment of nearly $10,000,000 on account of pensions.

JAMES IRWIN, Indian Agent, Shoshone Agency, W. T., telegraphed Commissioner of the Interior, that the Shoshone Indians were passing into the Shoshone Agency in great numbers, not less than fifty lodges having already arrived. Commissioner Price replied, directing the agent to order the Indians to return to their reservation, and not to issue rations to them from his supplies.

On the 12th the Treasury Department purchased 400,000 ounces of silver for delivery at the Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco mints.

SECRETARY TELLER has denied the application for reopening the question as to the boundary of the Pueblo lands of San Juan, as it was decided by Secretary Schurz in 1881.

SECRETARY TELLER has issued an order not to remove any land from the consideration by the Department of the Interior from any person, firm, or corporation in default in the performance of any contract or agreement made with the Department, or who has failed to perform the same to the satisfaction of the Department, or who has failed to pay any money due to such person, firm, or corporation.

In a late decision the Secretary of the Interior holds that a filing made before a clerk in the office of a Register of Land Office, who may be hearing de facto but not de jure, has the same effect as if made before the Register, and is valid.

The President's departure from Washington on a trip to Yellowstone Park is not yet fixed. It seems settled, however, that he will leave about August 1st, and will attend the opening of the Lemhi Valley Exposition before going further west.

THE EAST.

CHAS. W. SIMMONS, the celebrated English inventor, has entered suit against H. Sellers McKee, of Pittsburgh, Pa., to recover $300,000. The suit grows out of the failure of the Simmons-McKee Steel Company of New York, whose plants are located at Pittsburgh. The company's property was sold by McKee and McKee's portion purchased by McKee, and Simmons now sues to recover from him what he claims to be his portion of the proceeds of the sale. Simmons owned 300 shares of stock in the company valued at $1,000 each.

The Atlantic & Gulf Coast Canal and the Chesapeake Land & Drainage Company, comprised mainly of Philadelphia capitalists, have received from the State of Florida an award of $3,385,000 acres of land located in the southern portion of the Peninsula for the reclamation and operation in that State. The company has reclaimed nearly one million acres of land in Florida, and the work is still being vigorously pushed forward.

ABOUT two hundred assisted immigrants arrived at Boston recently, on the Atlantic. They consisted mainly of families and were better clothed and more healthy than their predecessors. Most of them had money and were bound West. In inquiry among them developed the fact that none of them were of the pauper class.

JOSPH STEINMANN, aged nineteen, shot his sixteen-year-old wife in New York the other night while she and another girl were walking in Thirty-fourth street with two men. He then shot himself. The wounds were not believed to be serious. They had been married one year. Jealousy was the cause.

At Springfield, Vt., $50,000 damage was done by water a few days since. Several showers met on the hill north of that village, and the torrent poured down the valley carrying away buildings, bridges and a large amount of property.

At Wilmington, Del., recently, two hundred and fifty hundred pounds of powder exploded in the press room of the Dupont Powder Works, Thomas Parke, foreman of the press room, and Patrick Hilly, laborer, were killed.

The New York Central Labor Union recently refused Denis Kearney permission to address their meeting by a large majority. Some of Kearney's advisers hired a room in the same building, and there Kearney made a speech denouncing the Labor Union and advocating higher railroad freight and passenger rates, claiming that this would lead to higher wages to employees of railroad companies.
